

THE NEW ENEMY

Our whole society
has a new enemy.
hey hey hey! What is this?
Is there something amiss?
There's a threat so serious
Because of a virus!

This virus is so small
and undetectable.
It sticks to filthy places
like kids' dirty faces.
And on children that skip their usual bathing trip.

A cartoon illustration of a young boy with brown hair, wearing a green t-shirt with a white rabbit face and red shorts. He is shown coughing and sneezing, with blue teardrop-shaped droplets coming from his mouth and nose. A green germ with a face and sharp teeth is flying out of his nose, and a purple germ with a face and sharp teeth is flying out of his mouth. The background features soft pink watercolor washes.

This illness spreads with ease when people cough or sneeze not covering their mouths, letting the virus out!

How then can we prevent the spread of this agent?

Our primary mission
that needs a completion:
wash our hands all the time
to hasten the decline
of this deadly microbe
that's conquering the globe.

Happy birthday
to you
Happy birthday
to you
Happy birthday...
Happy birthday
to you!

Our most effective tools
are just some simple rules:

Lots of soap, alcohol
will give you full control;
keep the virus at bay
and you --
guarded all day!

If there's a quarantine
it means you should come in.
Stay at home, don't come out so that this viral scout will never find its way
in your dwelling and stay.

We can surely succeed
against this viral breed if we all do our part
on this quest from the start.
Young and old together,
this storm, we will weather.

Once this mission is done
and the virus is gone,

you'll be, the world will know,
a real superhero!
